News spread fast and wide in times of war, with that in mind the United States of America, leaded by Roosevelt siding with the Allies declared war on Germany, but later on, in 1943, a fascist named Julian Franco using of the same kind of propaganda as Hitler, received support from the people and managed to imprison Roosevelt, taking the power of the USA to himself, after that he sided with

Nazi Germany later that year and as consequence, decided to change the country name to FFA (Francian Fascist America).

With the FFA by their side, Germany grew strong conquering the French, Italian and Spanish territory, but not everything was fine because a huge potency existed and was called URSS but, to guarantee their power, they made a peace treaty with the URSS so that both would not attack each other.

The war continued to wage on Europe against the last of the Allies, United Kingdom, without strong allies United Kingdom fell to FFA and after conquered became United Fascist Island or UFI for short, and as its name indicate, UFI was fascist and led by Dominico Franco, Julian's nephew.

In 1946, Japan, after 3 years of war, took control of all the Chinese territory and seeing that as a chance to exterminate Communist thinking of the world declared war on the URSS.

Hitler saw in that an opportunity to strike the URSS on both sides and allying himself with the Franco family to increase his army power, he attacked the URSS breaking their peace treaty in a bloody war called "Fascommunist War".

After 6 years of war, Nazi Germany took control of Moscow and named the now dead URSS as UFG, meaning, Union of Fascist Governments.

And now, 10 years later, in 1962, Nazi Germany started a project called "The Vlad Project", a project that would experiment with human beings, trying to achieve greatness and solidify the Arian race power over the world.
